"Our Common Home"- Laudato Si Explained
In Chapter 2 of Laudato Si- The Gospel of Creation, Pope Francis turns to the Bible to discuss the problems presented in the first chapter, i.e. pollution, climate change, human migration and the reduction in biodiversity. We are reminded of the 'immense dignity' of every person as they are made 'out of love' and in God's own 'image and likeness'. However, we must not act like nature exists only for our disposal; instead, "Christians are bound to care for creation."
