Archbishop Eamon Martin has today written a letter to the people of the Diocese of Dromore outlining how the Diocese meets its financial and other responsibilities for safeguarding children and for responding to those who have been abused in the past. The letter has been published on the diocesan (and parish) website and hard copies are also available at the back of the Church. Archbishop Eamon encourages the people of the Diocese to read the letter carefully and asks for your support in ensuring that together we can continue to keep children and vulnerable people safe in all our Church activities now and in the future.

Yours sincerely

Most Rev Eamon Martin, Apostolic Administrator
